WELCOME

TO THE

136TH PHILADELPHIA CHARITY BALL

Dear Guests,

I am pleased to welcome you to the 136th Philadelphia Charity Ball. The Ball highlights the contributions to our community that the young ladies and gentlemen have already made and will inspire them to continue to make philanthropy an important part of their lives. We can all be inspired by them and by those past participants who have gone on to be integral in the charitable life of Philadelphia.

This year's beneficiary is the Special Olympics Pennsylvania whose mission is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympic athletes, and the community. With nearly 1,400 athletes in the Philadelphia region, Special Olympics offers 11 sports through community-based programming. We are excited to work with the Special Olympics and have them be part of the Charity Ball.

This Ball would not be a success without the hard work and dedication of many people. I want to thank particularly this year's débutantes and young gentlemen and their families for their involvement and enthusiasm, the Board of Directors who work throughout the year to make this event a success, the Young Friends Committee, and our Executive Director, Lydia Butcher, without whose hard work, insight and humor the Ball could not take place. A special thank you must also go to the sponsors and guests here tonight. It takes all of you not just to make the Ball a success but to guide and inspire the young people here to become the future philanthropic leaders of Philadelphia.

OUR MISSION

The 2014 Philadelphia Charity Ball participants

The mission of the Philadelphia Charity Ball is two-fold: to raise funds for non-profit organizations focused on youth in Philadelphia, and to inspire the young people of Philadelphia to make philanthropy a central part of their lives.

The Philadelphia Charity Ball is a 136-year-old Philadelphia tradition. It is a formal celebration and gathering that has raised millions of dollars for a variety of worthwhile charities over the years. Each year the Ball endeavors to build on and continue this tradition. For the first century, the beneficiaries of the Ball were the Philadelphia hospitals and the results of these events are evident throughout our local hospital system.

The Philadelphia Charity Ball is part of the fabric of the history of Philadelphia. Many past participants have gone on to assume positions in Philadelphia area charitable organizations.

THE 2015
BENEFICIARY

Special Olympics
Pennsylvania

The beneficiary of the 2015 Philadelphia Charity Ball is Special Olympics Pennsylvania. Special Olympics is a global movement that unleashes the human spirit through the transformative power and joy of sport, every day around the world. Through sports, health, education and community programming, Special Olympics is tackling inactivity, intolerance, isolation and injustice that people throughout the world face, especially people with intellectual disabilities. The athletes of Special Olympics – more than 20,000 strong in Pennsylvania and nearly 1,400 strong here in Philadelphia – are constant reminders of all that is right with the human spirit.

The mission of Special Olympics Pennsylvania - Philadelphia is to provide year-round sports training and competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills, and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes, and the community. THE 2015

presented to

BRANDON VELEZ-ROA

The Jimmy Medal identifies and celebrates individuals who make a positive difference in the lives of others. Through their actions they exemplify the virtues of resiliency, humility, empathy and loyalty.

Brandon Velez-Roa is a student at Abraham Lincoln High School. Brandon participates as an athlete in both Unified Bocce and Soccer with Special Olympics at his school.

"Brandon is a fantastic athlete who loves competing and displays tremendous effort and attitude both on and off the field," said his coach Michael Turchi. His peers and teachers would describe him as kind, friendly, coachable and very lovable young man. Brandon's outgoing and optimistic demeanor have made him not only a great athlete, but also a wonderful friend and role model for all the students at Abraham Lincoln High School. He has participated with his fellow team and classmates in the Spread the Word to End the Word Campaign at Abraham Lincoln High School, which is a Special Olympics initiative that brings education and light to the word 'retard'. Through the Spread the Word to End the Word Campaign, students pledge not to use the 'R' word and by making that pledge they promote respect and an inclusive climate for all students. Brandon truly embodies the four pillars of the Jimmy Award: Resiliency, Empathy, Humility and Loyalty and Coach Turchi along with Special Olympics Philadelphia are honored to nominate him to receive this accolade.

SAMUEL KENT CHANCE, JR.

son of Ms. Elizabeth L. Chance

Samuel "Kent" Chance, Jr. graduated last June from Radnor High School. Kent was an all-around athlete at Radnor who lettered in football and wrestling and also played lacrosse. Of these sports, wrestling was his favorite, making it to districts as a junior and a senior, both times in the 220-pound class. Kent also participated in Model Congress and was a recipient of a Radnor Scholarship. Kent spends his summers in New Hampshire on the shores of Lake Winnepesaukee at Camp Tecumseh. A camper since sixth grade, Kent has been a counselor since 2014. Kent credits Tecumseh with teaching him the skills he needed in order to become both an accomplished athlete and a self-reliant young man with the confidence and motivation necessary to lead a successful and fulfilling life. He cherishes his time at Tecumseh, and in fact, it is hard to get him to leave after spending eight weeks there. This Fall Kent started his freshman year at Elon University in Elon, North Carolina. A business major, Kent has loved every minute of college life. In addition to academics, Kent plays club lacrosse, is in the Republican Club and enjoys an active social life.

CAMERON MILLER LAWTON WALLING

son of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Walling

Cam, a 2015 graduate of Episcopal Academy, played varsity soccer and lacrosse for his alma mater. EA offered Cam time and opportunity to pursue his interest in art and he was awarded Pennsylvania's Gold and Silver Key for his effort and accomplishment in 3D design. After graduation, Cam, always looking for fun, organized a group of ten friends to travel to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands. The guys hiked, snorkeled, experienced mountain farm life and "gave back" through community service for a local church. While in South America, Cam found time to explore sea life - fish, turtles, seals, even penguins in the warm, South Pacific. Now, a freshman business major at Southern Methodist University, Cam is keeping his hand in sports and channeling his endless energy via club soccer. SMU's High Diving Center has given Cam and new friends from CA an exciting pastime as they try out their acrobatic skill on the high boards! Free time finds Cam hanging out with friends, playing golf, and video games. His most supportive fan club is comprised of older brothers, Hayden and Garrett, younger sister, Lindsay, and parents, Amy and Gardner. The family loves to travel together and last year they managed to fit in a trip to Bermuda, Australia and New Zealand!

JOHN ELLIOT ROYER, III

son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Royer, Jr.

John (Jack) is a 2015 graduate of The Episcopal Academy where he was a lifer. While at Episcopal, Jack was a member of the Cum Laude Society. Jack was a member of the varsity wrestling team and also the golf team. He was a member of the Stripes, Episcopal's all-male A Capella group. During the spring of his senior year, Jack enjoyed his role of Frederic in the school's production of The Sound of Music. Outside of school, Jack spent time tutoring middle school students in both Latin and Algebra.

Jack is currently a first year student at The University of Virginia. He is an active member of the Advertising and Marketing Association, the Economics Club, and the Virginia Fly Fishing Club. After graduation Jack plans to pursue a career in business.

In his free time, Jack enjoys fly fishing and shooting trap, skeet and sporting clays in the Poconos as well as playing paddle tennis and golf with friends. He is currently writing a screenplay for fun.

As a sophomore, Sam is an active participant in his fraternity, Zeta Psi, and in various social and professional clubs on campus, such as the Wharton Investment Trading Group where he works on the Quantitative Analysis Team to develop new investment strategies.

When time allows, Sam can be found at the Racquet Club of Philadelphia touching up his Court Tennis strokes or taking in the beautiful scenery of the Chesapeake Bay with his father on a weekend sailing trip. Sam is eager to take a more active role in Philadelphia's young philanthropic community and help improve the city that has helped make him the man he is today.

SAMUEL WEBSTER BELDEN HOLE

son of Mr. and Mrs. James W.B. Hole

A graduate of The Episcopal Academy, Sam is a freshman at The University of Colorado, Boulder. Upon graduation from Episcopal, Sam was awarded The Erwin S. Drexel Prize for proficiency in the technical arts. His passion and talent are reflected in woodworking and two trucks that he rebuilt and converted for heavy-duty off-road use: a 1996 Ford F-150 and a 1994 Ford Bronco. In the course of these projects, Sam contributed extensively to various automotive and technical blogs. In addition to off-roading, Sam donates his time and trucks for service projects throughout the community including outreach at St. David's Episcopal Church, Radnor. Travel from the North Woods and coast of Maine, to the desert in Moab, Utah, to great cities of Europe, the country of Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands has contributed to Sam's appreciation for freedom, wild open spaces, and the great outdoors, thus his new home in Colorado. Sam enjoys hiking, mountain biking, fishing, boating, shooting, and downhill skiing. At CU Boulder, Sam is majoring in Economics.
